DON MARLETTE

DON MARLETTE - THE METRO MONK - combines psychology, suggestion, thought-reading, and other obscure, scientific and natural techniques to bring you a program of STUFF YOU DON'T SEE EVERY DAY. Basically, people think of things and he tells them what they are thinking. Usually. About 95% of the time. Hey, this isn't rocket-science; it's ENTERTAINMENT! (...and it's not supernatural!)

How do you make your next event the one your guests will talk about for months?

MINDBENDER! — a fast-paced, funny, and amazing presentation showcasing the hidden abilities of the human mind, exploring the areas of perception, intuition and other ways of how we see ourselves and the world around us, inspiring the audience to develop and explore their own hidden potential.

This incredible show is a fun, interactive audience participation experience where Don and members of the audience read each other's minds. This even includes the entire audience participating in The Great Group Mind-Reading Experiment, where everyone concentrates on personal questions and information, and Don attempts to tune in on their thoughts. Nothing supernatural; just good clean fun!

Every show ends with an amazing demonstration of the Power of Suggestion, where audience volunteers, under the POWER of SUGGESTION (not hypnosis!), people whom you know and work with are stuck to their chair, unable to remember their own name, see invisible pets, become movie stars and even space aliens! You'll know you made the right decision when you hear your audience's laughter and gasps of amazement!!

It's a fun and amazing time, with a roller-coaster ride of fun, laughter, suspense and amazement!

No two shows are ever the same!

- SEE the power of concentration at work, creating vivid, memorable images that your audience will never forget. We guarantee you'll remember a man blindfolded with surgical tape and 3 blindfolds, still reading people like an open book, a lot longer than the dinner or the inebriated rendition of "YMCA" the guys from accounting did last year.
- HEAR the amazed gasps and delighted laughter of your audience as they experience the time of their lives.
- FEEL the excitement as your audience begins to realize their OWN hidden potential. The Metro Monk involves the entire audience and focuses the spotlight on the wonderful abilities of each individual.
- KNOW that you have made the right decision when you bring The Metro Monk to your event. Mr. Marlette is fully insured, safety certified, and never performs offensive or embarrassing material.
- RELAX . . . you're in the hands of an experienced, professional entertainer!
